Request Detail:

I tried to send this query to the communications department using the contact button on your webpage at <https://www.lancashirecare.nhs.uk/foi>, but it bounced back as non-existent.

I have been looking through your directory of responses to FOI requests at <https://www.lancashirecare.nhs.uk/foi>, but I have noticed that you seem to have stopped publishing them sometime during 2016. I just wanted to check if this is intentional or if they are going to be published again.

Response Detail:

The Trust response to your recent FOI request is as follows:

The FOI requests have now been published up to the end of March. As a Trust, we aim to publish the requests on a rolling programme 4 weeks after the response has been sent out.

The FOI emailing link is in the process of being updated.
