Request Detail:

WITHDRAWN - Patient numbers with ADHD

a guesstimate of the number of ADHD patients that you have on your caseload and approx how many ADHD review appointments you do per month.

If you could just drop me a quick email please, just typing the two guesstimated numbers

Response Detail:

I don't want to give you any unnecessary work to do. It's not that important and I can do a guesstimate with the knowledge that I already have, so please don't go to all that trouble.
